

THE DAILY FLIP DEVOTIONAL

Learning to live life upside down, one day at a time

Scripture

Romans 6:16-18

Don't you know that when you offer yourselves to someone to obey him as slaves, you are slaves to the one whom you obey-- whether you are slaves to sin, which leads to death, or to obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God that, though you used to be slaves to sin, you wholeheartedly obeyed the form of teaching to which you were entrusted. You have been set free from sin and have become slaves to righteousness.

Study Questions

Monday: Take a moment and ask Jesus to speak to you and reveal to you the areas in your life you have not given Him freedom, whether those are areas you know of and are stubbornly holding on to...or the places you are blind to or have hidden very deep.

- Ask yourself:
 - How has Jesus loved me in the past?
 - How has Jesus proven faithful?
 - How do you need to begin to be set free from specific sins?

Tuesday: Jesus surrounded himself with people to live life with. Who are your close few? Do you let them completely in? How have you established systems and relationships of growth and accountability for your life and faith? If there are not, actively seek out a growth group and/or 1-2 people you can go deep with.

Wednesday: You have been set free for a purpose. God in Jesus Christ has been equipping and preparing you with a specific set of skills, talents, gifts, and personality to better His Kingdom. How are you using your freedom to better God's Kingdom? In what ways is he either confirming or challenging where you need to serve and/or lead?

Thursday: What are those chains (the sin) that you have picked back up? (or maybe are still standing over?) Are there influences such as media, career, or friendships you need to face up to? What steps do you need to take to remove these from your life?

Friday: What routines and habits do you have in place to grow deeper with Christ everyday? If you do not have any, what routines do you need to put into place? This will not just happen; you will need to make the time. How can you rely on your close few from Tuesday?

Saturday: Who is someone you need to share your freedom with? Someone who needs to experience freedom as well.
